ABSTRACT

This bibliography lists 371 selected citations to materials on CD-ROM technology and its applications. The first section includes journal articles subdivided by topical areas: (1) General; (2) Online Public Access Catalogs; (3) MEDLINE; (4) Bibliographies/Directories; (5) Hardware/Software; (6) Cost/Economics; (7) Databases; (8) Publishing; (9) Products; (10) Standards; (11) Libraries; (12) Document Delivery; (13) Evaluation; and (14) Work Stations. The second and third sections provide citations for 11 monographs and 9 serial titles respectively. An author index is included. (MES)

SERIES NOTE

This is one of a series of Specialized Bibliographies prepared and distributed by the Public Services Division of the National Library of Medicine (NLM). These bibliographies are usually the result of a combination of manual and computerized searching, utilizing databases produced by NLM and others. Specialized Bibliographies are generally more selective in content than those bibliographies produced under NLM's Current Bibliographies in Medicine series. The only criterion for inclusion of a published work in a Specialized Bibliography is its relevance to the topic being presented; the format, ownership, or location of the materials are not considered.

Publications in this series are not copyrighted and may be freely reproduced. A single copy may be obtained by sending a self-addressed, gummed labed to the address given below.

CD-ROM: COMPACT DISC - READ ONLY MEMORY

This bibliography was prepared expressly for the Evaluation Forum: MEDLINE on CD-ROM held at the National Library of Medicine on September 23, 1988. The Forum was organized by the Library, and featured representatives of biomedical library and clinical sites that participated in the evaluation of seven commercially-available CD-ROM products containing subsets of the MEDLINE database. MEDLINE is the National Library of Medicine's bibliographic database covering the fields of medicine, nursing, dentistry, veterinary medicine, and the preclinical sciences; it contains about six million records from 1966 forward.

CD-ROM has emerged as an important alternative access medium for scientific, technical, business, and a host of other informational databases. The subjects in this publication, therefore, are broader than the specific theme of the Forum and are intended to address the needs of various user groups with an interest in this technology and its applications. In addition to MEDLINE on CD-ROM, for example, it contains citations to articles about public access library catalogs, economic issues, specific databases, and standards. In gathering references, the MEDLINE and Health Planning & Administration databases of the National Library of Medicine were searched as well as ERIC, Information Science Abstracts, INSPEC, and LISA. The majority of the material comes from the non-NLM databases, and is not available in the National Library of Medicine's collection.

This bibliography is not intended to be exhaustive, and the exclusion of a particular item is no reflection on its quality or usefulness. The purpose is to indicate to the audience the type and range of materials available and to provide a starting point for further investigation.

This bibliography has been divided into four sections. The first section includes journal articles subdivided by topical area. Citations may appear under more than one topic. The second and third sections contain citations for monographs and serial titles. An author index comprises the final section, in which each author's name is followed by the page number on which his or her citation appears.

SAMPLE CITATIONS

Citations in this bibliographic series are formatted according to rules established for Index Medicus. Sample journal and monograph citations appear below.

The National Library of Medicine Announces Two New Subscription Titles

☐ AIDS Bibliography *

$12 per year (4 Quarterly issues)
Individual issues $3 per copy
List ID: AID 88

Previously published within NLM's Literature Search Series. Each issue consists of about 60 pages of recent references to journal articles and books on AIDS.

☐ Current Bibliographies in Medicine *

$26 per year (Approx. 20 Titles/yr.)
Individual issues $2 per copy
List ID: CBM 88

A continuation of the Library's Literature Search Series, which ended in 1987. Topics will continue to be chosen for their current popular interest in distinct subject areas of biomedicine (excluding AIDS).

*Subscribers receive all issues for a given calendar year without regard to the date of order.
